

SATURDAY, JUNE 14TH - SCHEDULE AT A GLANCE
	Omni Hotel
	Narragansett Ballroom	Waterplace Ballroom	Providence II&III	Providence I&IV	Newport / Washington	Bristol / Kent	Blackstone
9:00 - 10:30	Main Stage: Frameworks for Building Community
10:45 - 11:45	Claiborne Reborn: the realization of a dream	(hold for Starter Course)	Continuing the Lively Experiment: Exploring Regionalism for Rhode Island	Playing the Game: 501c4s and PACs for New Urbanist Advocacy	-	Sacred Spaces as Social Enterprise: Guiding development for faith-communities, neighborhoods, and cities.	(hold for Starter Course)
12:00 - 1:00	Lessons from Latin America: Sustainable Urbanism Rooted in Tradition	Hack the Code: Finding Common Ground in Zoning Reform Strategies (12:00-1:15)	Don't Break the City: Iterative Planning with Fiscal Analysis	Project Showcases: Innovative Housing Strategies for Rural and Small-Town Transformation Evaluating Regional Housing--Break the Rules	Exploring the Nexus Between Urban Planning and Boredom	Report on A New Database of Research on New Urbanism	-
1:00 - 1:45	Lunch & Snack Break - Lite Bites Provided
1:45 - 2:45	The State of Rhode Island's Urban Services Boundary and Land Use 2025	Planning With Purpose: Building Equitable Policies That Communities Can Deliver	METROPOLIS DIVIDED : A Dialogue in Densifying Border Towns and Their Regions	Removing Land Use from the Urban Planning and Development Process	Small Lots - Small Houses - Big Rewards	Latino Dreams, Urban Realities: Redefining Homeownership in the U.S.	Feminist Cities Part II Working Session (1:30-2:45)
3:00 - 4:15	Bridging Session: The Regional Context from New England to Northwest Arkansas
		Track KEY:	Regional Context	Evening Events:	CNU 33 Closing Party - Tra
			Climate
			Policy
			Transportation
			Housing
			Development
			Urban Design
			Public Engagement
			Other				