NEW URBAN GUILD

As a special offering during CNU 26, the New Urban Guild will present sessions focused on making urbanism more affordable and durable, focusing on practical applications, how-tos, and an interactive format that engages the audience in a juried approach to finding solutions. All day Wednesday at Congregation Mickve Israel and on Saturday in the Harborview at the DeSoto Hotel.

SAVANNAH DAY

Join us from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM on Thursday and 11:00 AM to 5:00 PM on Saturday at varied locations for sessions focused on the promise and challenges of historic and modern-day Savannah.

CNU URBANISTAS

Follow #CNUUrbanistas

In the spirit of amplifying the voices of women to make cities better for everyone, there will be happenings occurring each day that serve as opportunities to meet, think, collaborate, empower, and support one another.

The dates and times for the meetings, events, and activities can be found at facebook.com/groups/CNUUrbanistas or on Twitter at #CNUUrbanistas.

⊕ POP-UP PUBLIC SPACE

W Projects and The Revival Society will be collaborating to transform a section of the Savannah Civic Center parking lot into an interactive and engaging communal space. Utilizing the themes of tactical urbanism, this pop-up park is intended for both the attendees of the CNU conference as well as, the general public of Savannah to gather, meet, and mingle within a temporary installation.
